- FIIs continues to pour in huge money following record inflows previous month. As such, mid and small cap has seen he bmp in recent time. Echoing the strong sentiments, Nifty too has shown great moves, touching new high of 13216 before ending flat at 13133
- For past three days, Nifty is seen closing almost at the same levels reflecting the minor consolidation that is under way while the action lies in broader market space
- An insignificant small black candle was formed today and it looks like that the index could again test 13200 on the higher side and don penetration, of today's high, even 13300 can be seen
- On the lower side, 13000-12900 has emerged as strong support for now. unless these range is violated, the trend shall continue to remain firm. In case, a violation happens, 12750-12650 is a formidable support.
