- Today's bounce was very much on the expected lines following four days of consecutive losses. Nifty regained 11100 levels as bears ran for short covering, pushing the index higher by 203 points
- A big white candle was formed as prices rebound strongly. As the undertone remains favorable, the support was 200 provided another good opportunity to buyers.
- As today's move is positive and reflects the underlying strength, the markets could attempt to swing further higher
- > However, if the 200 DMA at 10860 gets violated decisively, the index can see further declines towards 10750.
