From Share India Research Desk...

*The Week That Was*

November 18th to November 22nd 2024.

It was nice to see buying opportunities at Dalal Street amidst 'Signs of Bears Exhaustion' and also on backdrop of 'Overextension of Pessimism'.

The positive takeaway from last week's trading was that Nifty and Sensex bounced nicely from lows and most importantly, the said rebound helped fuel the benchmark above their 200 DMA at 23594 mark.

Nifty (+1.59%, 23907)

Sensex (+1.98%, 79117)

The Big Question: What's Next? Dead cat bounce or Robust Rally Ahead?

Well, staying and closing above the 200-day moving average would be a bullish tilt from a technical perspective.

Nifty's price is still around 10% higher from the beginning of January 2024. But that said, Nifty is still way 9% down from its all-time-high at 26277.35 scaled in September 2024.

Please note, plenty of fear could still come back if there are any:

- 1) Any unfavorable outcome from Maharashtra and Jharkhand assembly elections where counting will take place this Saturday, November 23rd
- 2) WTI crude oil spikes further from current $70.65 a barrel amidst escalating conflict between Russia and Ukraine.

# Now, here are the other key themes in the week gone by:

- 1) Indian billionaire Gautam Adani has been charged with fraud in the US, which has accused him of orchestrating a $250m bribery scheme and concealing it to raise money in the US.

Amidst this backdrop, Adani Group market cap had plummeted around Rs 2.2 lakh crores.

Adani group stocks simply plunged with weekly losses for Adani Enterprises (-21%) Adani Port (-10%) ACC (-4.5%) Ambuja Cement (-8%) Adani Power (-16%) Adani Wilmar (-12%) Adani Total Gas (-11%).
- 2) Record exodus from the Foreign Institutional Investors. In the week gone by, FIIs sold to the tune of Rs. 11414 crores. (FII exodus has crossed Rs 40,947 crore this November).
- 3) Escalating Russia-Ukraine geopolitical tensions. (The Russian President Vladimir Putin has approved a change to the country's nuclear doctrine where they are threatening a nuclear response amid Ukraine's use of Western missiles against Russia).
- 4) Federal Reserve Chair Jerome Powell has said the Fed is in no rush to cut rates citing the economy's strength, a solid labor market, and persistent inflationary pressures.

# Long Story Short: The sentiments at our stock markets are still rattled amidst persistent FIIs selling which is acting as the biggest headwind.

The Week Ahead: The street likely to cheer bumper win of Mahayuti Alliance in the Maharashtra Assembly Elections!

The BJP-led Mahayuti Alliance emerged victorious in the Maharashtra Assembly elections on Saturday, November 23rd, winning a whopping 236 seats out of 288. Compared to the 2019 polls, the coalition has seen a massive surge in support, with voters overwhelmingly backing its development-focused governance. However, the NDA failed to win the Jharkhand assembly polls. We suspect, markets likely to cheer this landslide victory of Mahayuti Alliance in a fresh week of trading starting Monday.

Focus will also be on Adani group stocks this week as US prosecutors have indicted Gautam Adani, his nephew Sagar Adani, and others for allegedly orchestrating a $265 million (Rs 2,000 crore) bribery scheme to secure solar power contracts in India. The controversy has significantly impacted Adani Group's stock valuation, with Rs 2.45 lakh crore wiped out on last Thursday. Key companies, including Adani Enterprises and Adani Green Energy, saw declines of 18-23%. As per media reports, Adani group on Saturday clarified on reports of Kenya cancelling more than USD 2.5 billion in deals after US indictment on bribery charges, saying it had not entered into any binding agreement to operate Kenya's main airport.

Also, one of the key economic numbers to release this week include India's Q2FY25 GDP numbers on Friday, November 29th. Foreign investment bank Goldman Sachs expects India's strong long-term structural growth story to remain intact. But they have even forecasted that the GDP growth is likely to decelerate to 6.3% YoY in CY25, on continued fiscal consolidation and slower credit growth on macro-prudential tightening by the RBI. Hence, all eyes will also be on RBI MPC outcome in December 2024. Some volatility warranted as well amidst November F&O expiry on Thursday, November 28th.

Now, technically speaking, Nifty broke its 2-week losing streak. Nifty sharply rebounded from 23359 mark which now acts a key make-or-break support. Confirmation of major strength above the psychological 24500 mark.

The Nifty options data suggests Nifty is likely to be in a trading range of 23600-24600 zone. Maximum Call OI is at 25000 followed by 24500 strike prices. Now 24500 mark is now Nifty's major resistance zone. Maximum Put open interest stands at 21700 levels followed by 23500 levels. Call writing was seen at 24200 and then at 24400 strike price, while there was meaningful Put writing at 23400 and then at 23500 strike prices.

Long Story Short: Nifty likely to aim 24500 mark.
