From Share India Research Desk...

The Week That Was

June 23rd to June 27th 2025.

In the week gone by, the pessimists were once again proven wrong as none of the recent negative catalysts had any impact.

Well, bullish landscape predictability was definitely on investors advantage on the backdrop of steady, relentless buying which was the order of the week.

Nifty (+2.09%, 25638)

Sensex (+2%, 84059)

Before, we get into detail, the Good News: Bullish investors still eye more upside. Nifty looks poised to test its all-time highs at 26277.35 mark.

Investors risk appetite seen perking up amidst the key 7-positive catalysts:

- 1) Middle East geopolitical conflicts and tensions are now off the front pages. The Israel-Iran war was short-lived and now rests in peace.
- 2) Oil prices depressed at $65 a barrel and witnessed its worst week since March 2023, following a ceasefire between Israel and Iran.
- 3) RBI positive bulletin acted as one of the biggest tailwinds. The Reserve Bank Bulletin has said that amidst global uncertainties, various high-frequency indicators point towards resilient economic activity in India across the industrial and services sectors.
- 4) Extremely positive Wall Street cues with the S&P 500 and the Nasdaq index scaling new all-time-fresh-record high, supported by broad-based strength.
- 5) The White House has downplayed the urgency of upcoming tariff deadlines, easing investor concerns over a prolonged trade war. In fact, as of writing, the US Commerce Secretary Howard Lutnick says the U.S. is nearing agreements with 10 other trading partners.
- 6) President Trump is likely to announce candidates for next Fed Chairman, potentially installing a "shadow" chair who could push for a more dovish policy stance.
- 7) FIIs were net buyers in the week gone by to the tune of Rs. 4423 crores. FIIs also continue to be net buyers in the June month to the tune of Rs. 8321 crores.

Long Story Short: 'Upwards and upwards rose Nifty and Sensex — with absolutely no signs of hesitation!'
